

Spiritually

Use CPH Voyages Curriculum to tell Bible history

Love of God shared through stories, songs, and prayers

Teachers reflect Christ's love in daily instruction

Physically - fine motor/gross motor cutting strips and snips complete puzzles

write first name - upper case left to right progression eye/hand movement manipulate crayons, paper, pencil, glue, etc.

handle small manipulatives hand-eye coordination encourage growth of large muscles through daily movement hops

jumps

runs

balances

uses scissors (end of year)

Socially

follows simple directions and rules participates in activities interacts with others engages in play or activity for sustained period of time follows routines follows transitions and adapts to change expresses feelings appropriately uses problem solving skills demonstrates personal responsibility

Math

sorting objects copies patterns/creates own patterns recognizes shapes rote counting 1-10 identifies numbers 1-10 counts objects with 1:1 correspondence

Literacy

identifies colors identifies similarities/differences identifies name begins to identify uppercase letters attempts to print name and other words can read environmental print can retell a story match objects to a picture